Jon Buller, Larry Campbell

intro

|4/4 A- E- | C2 Dsus4 D | A- E- | C2 | C2 |

verse 1

          G          E-                  C2          D
You know I am a preacher man with passion, wine and bread
          G          E-          C2          D
I call the people of the town down to the riverbed
          E-          D/F#          G          C2  D
You know the Lord forgives and that He lives in you today so
||: G                  C2          D          D/F# G :|| G | G |
Meet me in the river and I'll wash your sins away (x2)

verse 2

          G          E-          C2          D
You think me a prophet I wear a camel for a dress
          G          E-          C2          D
I eat honey and bugs I am a voice crying in the wilderness
          E-          D/F#          G          C2  D
But I play second fiddle in the middle of the lake, so
||: G                  C2          D          D/F# G :||
Meet me in the river and I'll wash your sins away (x2)

bridge

||:E- D/F# | G C | D Dsus4 | D                  Dsus4 :||

Lai lai lai...

verse 3

          G          E-          C2          D  G                  E-          C2                  D
Written into history are miracles of mine - I have walked on water and turned that water into wine
          E-          D/F#          G          C2  D
But there is one miracle that blows them all away so
||: G                  C2          D          D/F# G :||
Meet me in the river and I'll wash your sins away (x2)
